DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The instant specification does not disclose a “generally narrow ring-shaped frame”. In fact, the instant specification on page 5 describes the net of the instant invention as being relatively large and open. Inherently, the frame that holds the net must be “relatively large”. Appropriate action required.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Applicant claims a “generally narrow ring-shaped frame”. It is submitted that the recitation renders the claim vague and indefinite as it is unclear from applicant specification exactly what the dimensions the frame must have to be considered “narrow”. Clearly, “narrow” is a relative term that requires defining to distinctly point out the invention. For examination purposes, any net having an opening is considered to meet the limitation of "narrow".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Figure 1 of the instant specification.

Figure 1 shows a net 12, a "narrow" ring-shaped frame 16, a closed vertex portion 18 formed at the opposite end 19, and a ring 20. Figure 1 does not explicitly teach that the ring is a means to grasp said bottom closed portion in the process of emptying said net of debris.

It is submitted that the recitation is clearly one of intended use which does not add structure to the device shown in the prior art. Accordingly, it is submitted that the recitation, while being considered by the examiner, is not given patentable weight in the claim.

If it is applicant's position that the recitation adds structure to the claim, then the examiner notes that the ring can be grasped when emptying the net of debris.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection necessitated by applicant's amendment.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 1, 4-10 and 13 are allowed.

10. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The claims are allowed for the reasons previously indicated by the examiner.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP
